

Република Србија
Министарство просвете, науке и технолошког развоја

Horizon 2020 - Opportunities for the participation in Marie Skłodowska - Curie Actions

University of Belgrade, Studentski Trg 1

Belgrade, 13 December 2016

09:00 – 09:30	Coffee / Registrations
09:30 – 09:45	Welcome by Prof. dr Vladimir Popović, state secretary in the MESTD Overview of Serbia's participation in Horizon 2020 prof. dr Viktor Nedović, assistant ministry in the MSTD and National coordinator
09:45 – 10:45	Opportunities for funding within the Marie Skłodowska-Curie actions Mr Daniel Göhring, Policy Officer, European Commission, DG Education and Culture
10:45 – 11:15	How is a MSCA project evaluated, tips and tricks for a successful proposal, Prof. dr Lidija Matija, Faculty of Mechanical Engineering University of Belgrade
11:15-13:00	Examples of H2020 success stories MSC (including Q&A) – Success Stories
	Dr Marija Edinborough-Radovic, University College of London Archaeology project - Individual Fellowships
	Prof. dr Goran Stojanović, Faculty of Technical Sciences, University of Novi Sad- H2020-MSCA-ITN-2014 (SELECTA)
	Prof. dr Zlatan Šoškić, Faculty of Mechanical and Civil Engineering in Kraljev, University of Kragujevac - H2020-MSCA-RISE-2016 (A_MADAM)
13:00 – 14:00	Networking Lunch
14:00 – 14:40	How to submit a MSCA proposal (including application process and reporting) Mr Daniel Göhring, Policy Officer, European Commission, DG Education and Culture
14:40 – 15:00	EURAXESS, Services for mobile researchers (including Q&A) Prof. dr Miroslav Trajanović, Faculty of Mechanical Engineering University of Niš
15:00 – 15:30	Serbian participation in Erasmus+ (including Q&A), Ivana Živadinović, Foundation Tempus - National Tempus Office, Serbia
15:30 – 16:00	What the Serbian MSCA National Contact Points can do for you? Nada Milošević, Ministry of Education, Science and technologie development (MSAC NCP)
	Closing Remarks (someone of speakers)